

Art and Prayer Day

Advent 2011

Saturday 3rd December
10am – 4pm

Jane Edwards

I have trained to offer Spiritual Accompaniment and Retreat Guiding within the Ignation tradition and also work as a BACP accredited Counsellor-Psychotherapist, group facilitator and trainer. I find the artwork of others and my own artwork to be invaluable tools in my own prayer life.

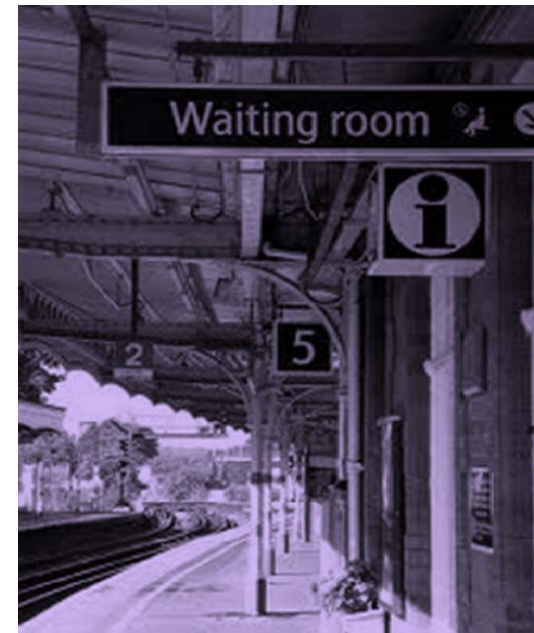

Debbie Bayne

I'm a visual artist, working in mixed media and embroidery. I have many years experience in facilitation and workshop leading, and have led quiet days using visual art and workshops to help people explore their creativity. I often find that using art helps me to explore and express things where I'm struggling to find words.

Jane and Debbie have worked with Carol Marples of Soul Marks over the past few years – both as participants in art and prayer days and as workshop assistants.

Exploring Advent through prayer and artwork – an opportunity to leave the hustle of the season for a day of spacious waiting.

The day will be led by Debbie Bayne and Jane Edwards on behalf of Soul Marks, which is dedicated to encouraging the use of the visual arts as a tool for prayer, worship and community.

All are welcome wherever you are on your own spiritual and artistic journeys.

No artistic experience is needed.

The cost of the day is £40 per person. This includes all art materials, lunch, coffee and biscuits. Soup and bread is provided for lunch.

We recommend that you come prepared to get messy!

The venue is St David's Church, Royston Mains Place, Edinburgh, EH5 1LH. There is free on street parking and bus routes include Lothian Buses 14,19 and 47.
