

The Coracle Trust

You are welcome to join fellow pilgrims drawn from a wide range of church traditions throughout Edinburgh.

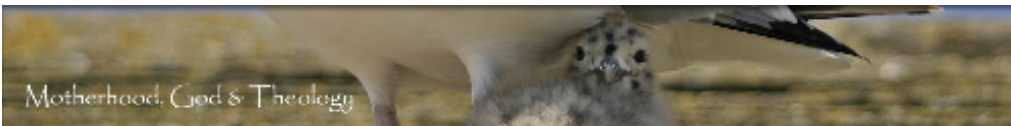

Motherhood, God and Theology

Inviting women to explore their experience of motherhood within the context of their faith. Evenings comprise reading relevant books, discussion, prayer and reflection. We hope to discover more of how God is present in motherhood and motherhood is present in God. We meet on Thursdays once a month.

Coffee mornings

Sit down and catch your breath, meet up with people from the area in between school, nursery drop off, Tesco's and errands! Drop in for coffee. Mums, toddlers, babies - anyone who is at a loose end on Friday mornings from 10am. Finishes for the school pick up at 12ish!

Motherhood, God & Theology

Andrew and Kirsty Hook, 668 3943

16 East Preston Street, Edinburgh, EH8 9QB
thecoracletrust@googlemail.com

A Scottish Charity, number 33358

The Coracle Trust provides people at various stages in life with a physically and spiritually hospitable context to learn and explore the meaning of Christian life in our everyday living.
