

The Coracle Trust

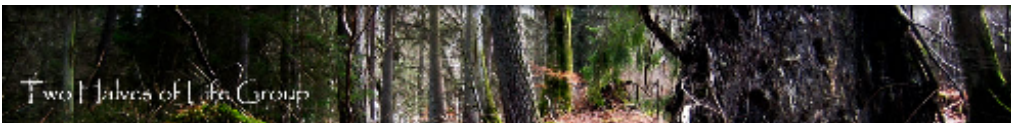

You are welcome to join fellow travellers drawn from a wide range of church traditions throughout Edinburgh.

The Two Halves of Life

Aiming to explore the spiritualities arising from the transition from the first half to the second half of life. We invite any who wish to share, learn and reflect on this one particular (peculiar!) stage in human and spiritual development – mid life.

We meet on the last Wednesday of each month from 7pm for a meal and 8pm for discussion and prayerful reflection using readings, images and poetry.

Midway this way of life
we're bound upon,
I woke to find myself,
in a dark wood,
where the right road
was wholly lost.
Dante, The Divine Comedy

Andrew and Kirsty Hook, 668 3943

16 East Preston Street, Edinburgh, EH8 9QB

thecoracletrust@googlemail.com

A Scottish Charity, number 33358

The Coracle Trust provides people at various stages in life with a physically and spiritually hospitable context to learn and explore the meaning of Christian life in our everyday living.

www.coracletrust.org.uk

The Coracle Trust

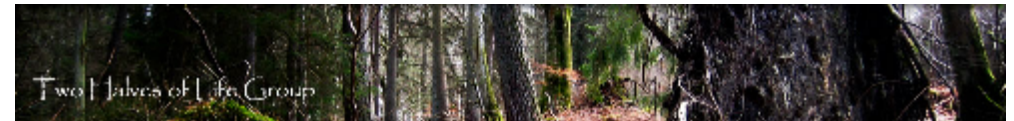

You are welcome to join fellow travellers drawn from a wide range of church traditions throughout Edinburgh.

The Two Halves of Life

Aiming to explore the spiritualities arising from the transition from the first half to the second half of life. We invite any who wish to share, learn and reflect on this one particular (peculiar!) stage in human and spiritual development – mid life.

We meet on the last Wednesday of each month from 7pm for a meal and 8pm for discussion and prayerful reflection using readings, images and poetry.

Midway this way of life
we're bound upon,
I woke to find myself,
in a dark wood,
where the right road
was wholly lost.
Dante, The Divine Comedy

Andrew and Kirsty Hook, 668 3943

16 East Preston Street, Edinburgh, EH8 9QB

thecoracletrust@googlemail.com

A Scottish Charity, number 33358

The Coracle Trust provides people at various stages in life with a physically and spiritually hospitable context to learn and explore the meaning of Christian life in our everyday living.

www.coracletrust.org.uk